   The Company or a subsidiary cannot cast a vote for a share on which it has a right of usufruct.
   In determining the extent to which the shareholders vote, are present or represented, or the extent to which the share capital is provided or represented, the shares on which, by law, no vote may be cast shall not be taken into account.

Article 19.

1. The Company shall indemnify any person who was or is a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board (each of them an "indemnified person") and who was or is in his capacity as member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal or administrative or any action, suit or proceeding in order to obtain information (other than an action, suit or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the Company or its subsidiaries), against any and all liabilities including all expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and other financial losses, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by a judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or the failure to put up a defense or its equivalent, shall not, in and of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and not in a manner which he reasonably could believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders.

The indemnified person is obliged to inform the Company as soon as practically possible about any claim or any circumstance that could lead to a claim.

2. No indemnification pursuant to paragraph 1 of this article shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter:
   a. as to which such person shall have been adjudged in a final and non-appealable judgment by a Dutch judge to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the judge before whom such action or proceeding was brought or any other Dutch judge having appropriate jurisdiction shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to a compensation which the judge before whom such action or proceeding was brought or such other judge having appropriate jurisdiction shall deem proper; or
   b. insofar costs and losses have been insured under any insurance and the insurance company has reimbursed to him the costs and losses or has indicated to do so.

3. Expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by an indemnified person in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding (except if instituted by or on behalf of the Company or any subsidiary) shall be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of an indemnified person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorised in this article.

4. The indemnification provided for by this article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the laws of the Netherlands as from time to time amended or under any by-laws, agreement, resolution of the general meeting or of the members of the Management Board or Supervisory Board who are not an interested party in this matter or otherwise, both as to actions in his official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding such position, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board and shall also inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of the estate of such person.

5. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any indemnified person, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this article.

draft
6. No amendment or repeal of this article shall adversely affect any right to protection of any person entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses under this article prior to such amendment or repeal. By the amendment or repeal of this article an amendment can be made in the protection of any persons that have been (re-)appointed as member of the Management Board or Supervisory Board after the amendment or repeal of this article.

Financial year, annual accounts, annual report

Article 20.

1. The Company’s financial year shall be concurrent with the calendar year.

2. The Management Board shall prepare the annual accounts (consisting of the balance sheet and profit and loss account with explanatory notes thereto) within four months of the end of each financial year. The annual accounts shall be signed by all members of the Management Board and all members of the Supervisory Board. If the signature of one or more of them is lacking, this fact and the reason thereof shall be indicated.

3. The general meeting shall instruct a registered accountant or a firm of registered accountants, as defined in section 2:393 paragraph 1 Dutch Civil Code, to audit the annual accounts and the annual report by the Management Board, to report thereon, and to issue an auditor’s certificate with respect thereto. If the general meeting fails to issue such instructions, the Supervisory Board shall be authorised to do so, and if the latter fails to do so, the Management Board.

4. The Company shall ensure that, as of the day on which a general meeting at which they are to be considered, is called, the annual accounts, the annual report and the additional information to be provided pursuant to section 2:392 paragraph 1 Dutch Civil Code are available for examination by persons with meeting rights. The Company shall make copies of the documents referred to in the previous sentence available free of charge to persons with meeting rights. If these documents are amended, this obligation shall also extend to the amended documents.

5. The annual accounts shall be adopted by the general meeting.

6. The annual accounts shall not be adopted if the general meeting is unable to take cognizance of the certificate as referred to in paragraph 3 of this article, unless, together with the other information as referred to in section 2:392 Dutch Civil Code, a legitimate ground is given why the certificate is lacking.

draft

After the proposal to adopt the annual accounts has been dealt with, the proposal will be made to the general meeting to discharge the members of the Management Board in respect of their conduct of management and the members of the Supervisory Board for their supervision thereon during the relevant financial year insofar this appears from the annual accounts or has otherwise been made known to the general meeting.

7. The Company shall be obliged to make its annual accounts publicly available at the Trade Register. The provisions of section 2:394 paragraph 8 apply to the Company.

Allocations of profit

Article 21.

1. The Company may make distributions to the shareholders and other persons entitled to the distributable profits only to the extent that the Company’s shareholders’ equity exceeds the sum of the paid-in capital and the reserves which it is required to maintain by law.

2. The Management Board shall determine, subject to prior approval of the Supervisory Board, which part of the profits shall be reserved.

3. The part of the profit remaining after application of paragraph 2 of this article, shall be at the disposal of the general meeting.

4. After the approval of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board may make interim distributions only to the extent that the requirements set forth in paragraph 1 above are satisfied as apparent from an (interim) financial statement drawn up in accordance with the law, and with due observance of paragraph 2 of this article.

5. After the approval of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board may decide that a distribution on shares is not made entirely or partly in cash, but rather in shares in the Company.

6. On proposal of the Management Board which has been approved by the Supervisory Board, the general meeting may decide to make payments to holders of shares from the distributable part of the shareholders’ equity.

7. Any claim a shareholder may have to a distribution shall lapse after five years, to be computed from the day on which such a distribution becomes payable.

8. The date on which dividends and other distributions shall be made payable shall be announced in accordance with article 22 of these articles of association. Unless the Company body authorised to make distributions

9. The parties entitled to a dividend or other distribution shall be the shareholders, usufructuaries and pledgees, as the case may be, as at a date to be determined by the Management Board for that purpose. This date shall not be earlier than the date on which the dividend or other distribution was announced.

General meetings of shareholders

Article 22.

1. The annual general meeting shall be held every year within six months of the end of the financial year, in which shall be considered:
   a. the consideration of the annual report;
   b. the adoption of the annual accounts;
   c. any other matters put forward by the Supervisory Board or Management Board and announced pursuant to this article.

2. General meetings of shareholders will be held in the municipality, in which the Company has its seat, or in Rotterdam, Utrecht or Haarlemmermeer (Schiphol).

3. Persons with meeting rights can be sent notice of a general meeting at the addresses listed in the shareholders' register.

4. Without prejudice to paragraph 3 and without prejudice to the regulations of Euronext Amsterdam N.V., persons with meeting rights can be notified by an advertisement by a public announcement made through an electronic channel which is directly and permanently accessible until the general meeting.
   If a person with meeting rights consents thereto, he/she may also be notified by a legible message sent electronically to the address that he/she has given to the Company for this purpose.

5. General meetings of shareholders shall be convened by the Supervisory Board or the Management Board.
   The convocation shall be effected no later than on the forty-second day before the day of the meeting.

6. Extraordinary general meetings of shareholders shall be held as often as the Management Board or the Supervisory Board deems this necessary or upon the written request of one or more shareholder(s), representing at least one-tenth of the issued capital, to the Management Board and/or the Supervisory Board, setting out the matters to be considered in detail.

7. An item proposed by one or more shareholders having the right thereto according to the next sentence, will be included in the convocation or

draft
announced in the same manner, provided the Company receives such request or a proposal for a resolution in writing no later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the meeting.

Consideration may be requested by one or more shareholders or other persons with meeting rights representing jointly or separately at least three percent (3%) of the issued capital.

Article 23.

1. The general meetings of shareholders will be chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Board, or, in his absence by the deputy chairman of the Supervisory Board; if both are absent, the general meeting shall appoint the chairman.

2. Minutes shall be kept of the items dealt with at the general meeting of shareholders.

   The minutes shall be adopted by the chairman and the secretary appointed thereto by the chairman, and shall be signed by them in witness thereof.

3. The chairman of the meeting as well as any member of the Management Board may at all times commission the drawing up of a notarial record of the meeting at the Company’s expense.

4. The chairman shall decide on all disputes with regard to voting, admitting people and, in general the procedure at the meeting, insofar as this is not provided for by law or the articles of association.

Article 24.

1. Each shareholder as well as each other person with meeting rights, is entitled, in person or through an attorney authorised in writing for the specific meeting, to attend the general meeting, to address the meeting and, in case he is entitled to the voting rights, to exercise the voting rights.

2. For the application of the provision in paragraph 1, persons with voting rights and/or meeting rights are considered to be those persons who (i) on the record date are persons with voting rights and/or meeting rights with respect to a share, and (ii) are registered as such in (a) register(s) determined by the Management Board, irrespective of who at the time of the general meeting is a person with voting rights and/or meeting rights.

   In addition, as a prerequisite for being admitted to a general meeting, each person with voting rights and/or meeting rights who is entitled to attend and, if relevant, vote at a general meeting pursuant to the previous sentence, must give notice to the Company of his intention to attend such general meeting at least seven days prior to the general meeting, specifying such person’s name and the number of shares for which such person may exercise the voting rights and/or meeting rights at such general meeting.

With respect to shares included in a collection deposit or giro deposit, the notice referred to in the previous sentence may be sent by the intermediary concerned at the request of the person with voting rights and/or meeting rights.

The provisions regarding the notice in the preceding two sentences apply mutatis mutandis to the attorney authorised in writing of a person with voting rights and/or meeting rights.

The record date and the deadline for submitting a notice as referred to in the second sentence shall be mentioned in the notice of the meeting.

3. Without prejudice to the relevant statutory requirements and the other provisions of these articles of association, the notice convening the general meeting shall at least state the agenda for the meeting, the place, time, date and record date of the meeting, and the way in which the persons with meeting rights can register and can exercise their rights at the meeting.

4. If the Management Board so decides, each person with meeting rights may participate, speak and insofar as he/she has voting rights, vote in person or through a proxy via an electronic channel of communication at the general meeting.

5. For the effectuation of the provisions of paragraph 4 the person with meeting rights must be identifiable via the electronic communication channel, must be able to take direct cognizance of the business of the meeting, and must be able to exercise voting rights insofar as he/she is entitled thereto. The Management Board may moreover decide that a person with meeting rights must be able to participate in the discussions via the electronic communication channel.

6. Before pronouncing the provisions of paragraph 4 effective the Management Board shall draw up regulations setting out, amongst others, the conditions for the application of the provisions in paragraph 4, the identification and other matters referred to in paragraph 5, and the use of electronic communication media.

The conditions which are incorporated in the regulations and pronounced effective shall be announced in the notice convening the general meeting. The regulations shall contain provisions for the consequences of failures of the electronic communication channels in relation to, amongst others the quorum requirements for passing resolutions at the meeting.

7. Each person with voting rights and/or meeting rights or his representative wishing to attend the general meeting may be asked to sign the

Article 25.

1. Each share shall confer the right to cast one vote.
2. Insofar as the law or these articles of association do not prescribe a larger majority, resolutions shall be passed by an absolute majority of votes cast.
3. All voting shall be orally. Unless the chairman of the general meeting determines otherwise, the oral voting takes place by acclamation. The chairman of the general meeting may, however, determine that voting shall be in writing. In the event of the election of persons, anyone entitled to vote may demand that voting shall take place by written ballot. Voting by written ballot shall take place by means of sealed, unsigned ballot papers.

4. In the event the votes tie, the issue shall be decided by drawing lots, if it involves a proposal pertaining to individuals. If it concerns matters, the proposal shall be rejected in the event the votes tie.
5. Blank votes and invalid votes and abstentions shall be considered as not having been cast, but shall be counted towards a quorum.
6. If the Management Board so decides and makes its decision known in the notice convening the meeting, votes which are cast prior to the general meeting via electronic channels or via a letter shall be equivalent to votes cast during the meeting, provided that these votes are not cast before the record date and provided further that the votes so cast have been exercised by the person who was entitled to vote at the record date, irrespective of who holds the rights to the shares during the general meeting.

Amendments to the articles of association, legal merger, demerger, dissolution and liquidation

Article 26.

1. On proposal of the Management Board which has been approved by the Supervisory Board, the general meeting may resolve to amend the Company’s articles, to conclude a legal merger (juridische fusie) or a demerger (splitsing), or to dissolve the Company.
2. The full proposal shall be available at the offices of the Company from the draft day of the convocation to the general meeting until the close of same for inspection by persons with meeting rights; the copies of this proposal shall be made available free of charge to persons with meeting rights.

3. Upon dissolution, the liquidation of the Company shall be effected by the Management Board, unless the general meeting has designated other liquidators.

4. The remainder of the Company’s assets after payment of all debts and the costs of the liquidation shall be distributed to the holders of shares, in proportion to the nominal amount of each shareholder’s holding in shares.

5. During the liquidation, the provisions of the articles of association shall remain in force as much as possible.
